

VOICE OVER WORKSHOPS with JEFF BERGMAN

Adults: Saturday, February 10, 2007, 8:30 am – 5:30pm

Children & Teens: Sunday, February 11, 2007, 8:30 am – 5:30 pm

$140 ($130 for AFTRA members)

Students enrolled in Jeff Bergman's workshop will learn:

How to read copy • The art of auditioning • The construction of a top notch commercial reel • Developing a strategy for marketing the reel and yourself • The protocol for getting your materials into the hands of casting directors and agents • Presenting yourself well in talent agency interviews. You'll also be given information on in-studio coaching > how to make a demo > developing marketing strategies that will help performers to find work as voice actors.

ABOUT INSTRUCTOR JEFF BERGMAN

In 1989, Jeff Bergman was selected to re-create many of Mel Blanc's classic Warner Brothers characters for Steven Spielberg's animated series: Tiny Toon Adventures. Jeff's voice is also heard in advertising as Barney Rubble for Pebbles Cereal and Charlie the Tuna for Starkist. Jeff is the voice of Gus the Groundhog for Pennsylvania Lottery and is currently making celebrity voice guest appearances on Fox TV's "The Family Guy."

United Steel Workers of America Building
5 Gateway Center, First Floor Pittsburgh, Pa 15222
(Corner of Boulevard of the Allies and Stanwix Street - Downtown)

To register or for more information go to:

www.donnabelajaccasting.com

or call 412-391-1005